

Phone Security Profile Configuration

---

For information on configuring and applying a phone security profile, refer to the Cisco Unified CallManager Security Guide.

The Phone Security Profile window includes security-related settings such as device security mode, CAPF settings, digest authentication settings (for SIP phones only), and encrypted configuration file settings. You must apply a security profile to all phones that are configured in Cisco Unified CallManager Administration.

