

END-OF-SALE AND END-OF-LIFE ANNOUNCEMENT FOR THE CISCO ICS 7750 INTEGRATED COMMUNICATION SYSTEM

Cisco Systems® announces more information about the end-of-sale and end-of-life process for the Cisco® ICS 7750 Integrated Communication System. Previously announced on October 13, 2003, the last day to order the Cisco ICS 7750 was March 31, 2004. Customers with active service contracts will continue to receive support from the Cisco Technical Assistance Center (TAC) until March 31, 2005. Table 1 shows the milestones, definitions, and dates for the Cisco ICS 7750. Table 2 lists the product part numbers affected by this announcement.

CISCO ICS 7750 SOFTWARE FEATURE RELEASE SUPPORT—IMPORTANT NOTICE

The Cisco ICS 7750 will support future Cisco CallManager 4.0(2)a, Cisco Unity™ 4.0.4, and Cisco IP Contact Center (IPCC) Express 3.5(2)SR1 releases as the last major feature releases on the Cisco ICS 7750. For certain Cisco CallManager 4.0.1 feature deployments, due to System Processing Engine (SPE) 310 and Multiservice Route Processor (MRP) 300 series hardware limitations, external voice gateways will be required to configure multiline priority and pre-emption (MLPP) and voice security support with the Cisco ICS 7750.

CISCO ICS 7750 SOFTWARE AND HARDWARE UPGRADES FOR EXISTING CISCO ICS 7750 CUSTOMERS

Existing Cisco ICS 7750 customers will be able to purchase selected software and hardware upgrades to upgrade software application versions and to add user capacity to installed Cisco voice applications. For instance, Cisco ICS 7750 customers that have a Cisco Unity messaging solution can now add additional voice-mail boxes to existing Cisco ICS installations of Cisco Unity.

The Cisco IPCC and IP interactive-voice-response (IVR) application support can also be delivered using the current Cisco 7800 Series Media Convergence Server application server configurations available today. The Cisco ICS 7750 Multiservice Route Processor (MRP) recommended replacements will be the Cisco 1760-V for the voice gateways configured with the appropriate analog or digital VIC or VWIC cards. However, all Cisco IOS Software-based multiservice routers and gateways, including the Cisco 1700, 2600, and 3700 series routers, will also work.

Table 3 provides relevant information for migrating from the Cisco ICS 7750 to the new Mid-Market IP Communications Server Bundles.
