EMEAR Macro-economic Outlook

Economy rebalancing continues, but at a slower pace

- Europe continues to recover, but not uniformly across the region
- Germany solid
- UK Q4 CY13 growth fastest in 5 years; UK to become Europe's fastest growing economy in 2014
- Mixed data from France suggest a slow recovery
- Spain and Netherlands out of recession; Italy improving, but still contracting

FY14 Real GDP YoY Growth (%)

Emerging growth, combined with volatility

- Capital flow uncertainty driven by the unwinding of US stimulus leading to investor risk and volatility
- Emerging to remain fastest growing theatre, but growth not universal as in the past years
- Modest outlook for some countries (e.g. Russia) amid lack of structural reforms
- Oil exporter prospects remain high driven by high oil prices

FY14 Real GDP YoY Growth (%)

Reversal of capital flows stabilising

- Unwinding of US stimulus announced; US asset purchases down by $10bn/month from Jan '14
- Already priced in by the markets, hence no widespread FX drop except in countries with large trade deficits and political instability (Turkey, South Africa)
- ECB rates remain at record lows to counter the rise of the Euro and support Europe's fragile economic recovery

Values below 100 indicate a depreciation
